Attachment to Advisory Action

Amended claim 1 reciting the combined limitations of the previous claims 7, 8, 10 and 14 with an additional limitation (hardening time of 10 min or less found in specification and the original claim 14), amended claim 2 with new combined limitations recited in the previous claims 7, 8, 10 and 14 which were dependent on the claim 1 and new claim 24 reciting the combined limitations of the previous claims 9-12 and 17 after the final rejection raise new issues that would require further consideration and search, and thus entry is denied.

Applicant's argument is based on the amendment which is denied entry and thus it has no probative value. The examiner's response is not needed with respect to such argument at this time since the amendment will not be entered and the rejections are maintained for reason of record except 112, 2nd pp rejection with respect to the claim 8 (applicant is correct in that the claim 8 had a sentence ending period.).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tae H. Yoon whose telephone number is (571) 272-1128. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Fri.
